The Demolition Man

Former prime Minister Nawaz Sharif makes an explosive admission on a once taboo subject

I CONFIRM THAT PAKISTAN possesses the atom bomb" . With that announcement at a political rally last week, former Prime Minister Main Muhammad Nawaz Sharif contradicted years of Pakistani denial _about his country 's nuclear capability. The declaration set off an explosion among politicians in both countries.

Irresponsible," declared Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto, Nawaz Sharif's successor; the claim, she said , was one "we categorically contradict." " Wrong , " agreed a spokesman for the foreign ministry, who reaffirmed the official position that while Pakistan had the technical know -how to build a bomb, it had "taken a conscious decision not to make a nuclear weapon. "Foreign Minister Asif Ali Zardari accused Nawaz Sharif of being unpatriotic and"acting like an agent of India ".
